WHAT YOU'LL HELP BUILD

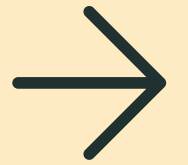

This is a hands-on role where you'll help:

- ✓ Support the day-to-day rhythm of our Discord community
- ✓ Expand Buffer's presence on Reddit
- ✓ Bring community programs to life like AMAs, events, and challenges
- ✓ Support beta and power user programs

You'll help turn ideas into repeatable community motion.

We build community with intention.

- ✓ Show up consistently and thoughtfully
- ✓ Try things manually before scaling
- ✓ Prioritize trust, care, and long-term relationships
- ✓ Share learnings openly across teams

Community work here values presence as much as outcomes.

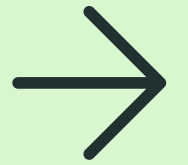

You'll work across tools and platforms like:

- ✓ Discord
- ✓ Reddit
- ✓ Social platforms where creators gather
- ✓ Notion, Slack, Linear, and internal dashboards

You'll also bring strong instincts for content, conversation flow, and community signals.

You'll thrive here if you

- ✓ Have experience supporting or growing online communities
- ✓ Are a creator yourself and use Buffer
- ✓ Enjoy facilitating conversations and building connection
- ✓ Like partnering closely with others to bring plans to life

You care about people and take pride in thoughtful execution.

APPLY AND JOIN THE TEAM

Build community differently.

At Buffer, community is a long-term investment and a shared responsibility. You'll join a kind, distributed team that values transparency, experimentation, and care.
